

Good Life Broadcasting Public File 2006

EO King

Today's Family – Locally produced

Period of January to March, 2006

January 5

Orlando Union Rescue Mission – Director Don Moody highlights history of how mission has helped, and continues to care, people of the street, individuals and families who have fallen on hard times.

Attorney John Stemberger – Update on Coalition for Florida Marriages' awareness campaign to bring a referendum to state citizens to vote on the Florida Marriage Protection Amendment.

January 12

Worldwide Volunteerism highlighted among Wycliffe Bible Translators abroad.

Barkari Burns, exec officer, Health Care for the Homeless

Purpose Orlando & Luis Palau Orlando Festival combining resources for a 2 month study series in churches based on Rick Warren's "Purpose Driven Life" culminating with a 2 day youth oriented Festival of music & inspiration on the Citrus Bowl grounds.

January 19

Dr. Steven Hotze – Renowned Health & Wellness Center physician discussed "Hormones, Health & Happiness" for women.

Dr. Doug Weiss joins musicians Steve Siler & John Mandeville to discuss sexual abuse & exploitation of young ladies accentuated by a composition, "Somebody's Daughter."

January 26

Ray Hall – Director Prison Book Project distribution in prisons & jails across America.

Rick & Jill Dye with daughter's testimony of abstinence from sex until marriage.

February 2

Steve Saint of Indigenous People's Technologies Education Center & Waodani tribesman Mincaye from Equador describe new movie, "End of the Spear," telling the history of the killing of 5 American missionaries in the 1950's by Mincaye & fellow tribesmen.

Fusion Orlando event bringing together people in their 30's who are disillusioned about life and looking for new direction.

Attorney John Stemberger with Rabbi Yosef Konikov discuss cased dismissed by a local judge over rabbi's right to hold prayer meetings in his home.

Pastor Joel & Kathy Davisson describe the events surrounding his admitted infidelity & how she forgave him and saw the couple's relationship renewed.

February 9

Mat Staver of the Liberty Counsel gives update on status of the Florida Marriage Protection Amendment.

Rick Silanskas describes mission behind Project Anna Foundation to helps orphans in Russia.

Chris McFarland with progress in preparations for the Orlando Festival with Luis Palau set for April 1 & 2 expected to draw tens of thousands of predominantly young people.

Body Balancing instructor Tim Michaels describes & demonstrates ways to live healthier by observing principles of exercise & diet.

February 16

American Red Cross of Central Florida CEO Joel Haas discusses Hazard Weather Awareness.

Barry Wagner of Ezra Int'l & Final Exodus Still to Come in helping thousands of Jewish people in Russia return to their Mideast homeland in the nation of Israel.

Becky Dedo tells life story of how she overcame a brain injury from a bad fall and of the tens of thousands in America who are released from hospital emergency rooms with brain injuries very year who can also know how to cope with their medical condition.

Daytona Beach pastor Jerry Barnard of the International Christian Centre touches on history behind establishing the church and the Biker's converging on his city each year.

February 23

Daniel Green of the Central Florida Children's Home describing how the annual Bike-a-Thon substantially funds operations.

John Cox explains purpose behind a 3 day convening of Armies of Compassion Net Recovery Care Conference in Orlando, a faith-based initiative drawing a number of churches & community groups together.

Artist & songwriter, Lloyd Marcus, director of Deltona Arts & Culture Center, appears with Mat Staver of the Liberty Counsel to describe how the mayor of that city ordered return of Mr. Marcus' paintings to city hall during Black History Month after first ordered them removed because two paintings had symbols of Christianity in them.

Another progress report on Purpose Orlando series from Rick Warren's Purpose Driven Life being collectively studied by hundreds of churches.

March 2

Corporal Bryan Tittle of the Orange County Sheriff's Homeland Security Division describes the critical link between the new Urban Area Mobile Command Post and communications among law enforcement and government people after weather and civil disruptions.

Elizabeth Steger, Ph.D, & citrus consultant reports on disease and economy impact within Florida's citrus industry.

March 3

On-location Conversation with Golfing Great Arnold Palmer at 28th Bay Hill Invitational Tournament discussing his career & the Orlando-based Arnold Palmer Hospital for Children & Women and the new Winnie Palmer Hospital for Women & Babies.

Richard Wagner explains why he wrote the book "Little League Heaven: Legend of Odie Sweeny" whose historic 38 years as a Little League manager inspired Wagner who played under him as a child.

Design consultant Toni Sims with suggestions about making the seasonal transition from indoors to outdoors.

Orlando Festival director Chris McFarland updates preparation for the large April 1 & 2 outdoor rally focused on young people.

Dr. David Hawkins explains meaning behind the title of his book "Why Men Can't Commit."

March 23

Movie maker Phil Cooke of Cooke Pictures with engaging conversation about the impact of changes on society from rapid changes in the media.

March 30

Certified National Counselor Dwight Bain takes on the topic of Mother-Daughter Conflicts.

Licensed Dietician & Nutritionist Alice Baker discusses Eating Disorders.

Liberty Counsel's Mat Staver with update on Marriage Protection Amendment & other religious liberties issues.

Pastor & Mrs. Frank Thompson recap the 12 year history of The Worship Center Orlando in the neighborhood of Pine Hills.

Harvard trained lawyer/author/speaker Laurie Puhn offers thoughts about how to change words to change your life through "Instant Persuasion."

FCC PUBLIC FILE FOR TODAY'S FAMILY PROGRAM

GOOD LIFE BROADCASTING, INC.

EO N. Jones

WTGL TV 52 – Cocoa/Orlando

WLCB TV 45 – Leesburg/Orlando

Period of April, May, June 2006

April 6

Special program thematic on “Life, Love & Liberty” with emphasis on military credited for making America the Land of the Free and Home of the Brave.

Jeff Steinberg, born with no arms and deformed legs proves to be a model to people who only see the glass “half full” and how to rise above seemingly impossible circumstances.

Dietitian/Nutritionist Tara Gidus discusses the potential danger of “desktop dining” or eating in the office.

April 13

Red Cross – Summer Aquatic Safety & Hurricane Preparedness.

“Taste of Compassion” interdenominational annual evening picnic prepared by Orlando area’s top chefs.

April 20

Follow up on Sadie Holmes “Extreme Makeover” shown on ABC focusing on Ms. Holmes and family’s rise from a disastrous house fire from which she distributed goods to the needy.

Leaders discuss the 2006 National Day of Prayer events including the Central Florida Mayors' Prayer Breakfast and an interdenominational gathering at the Kissimmee Silver Spurs Arena from throughout Osceola County.

April 27

James Snyder describes start of a home for pregnant teens in Ocala in Marion County, highest per capita for pregnant teens in the state of Florida.

Julianne Heartland describes her battle with multiple personality disorder, a disassociative disease.

May 4

Co-founder Marie Kuck tells how the third annual Nathaniel's Hope Buddy Walk involves hundreds of volunteers caring for special "V.I.P.s" with various genetic anomalies.

Mary Byers offers encouragement to people, mostly women who are often betrayed, how to say no and live to tell about it, by being decisive in the face of the pressures of life.

May 11

Body balancer Tim Michaels explains and demonstrates ways to cope with bad backs.

Pastor Angel Rosado covers the growth of his church, Renacimiento Cristiano.

J-4 Leaders discuss what women go through in the marketplace of work.

Global missions representatives from Calvary Assembly report on a large, annual, conference with focus on foreign missions including Thailand orphans and prostitutes ministries.

May 18

City of Sanford Public Works Director announces unveiling of a renewed memorial park honoring veterans.

May 25

Memorial Day Special featuring report on a parade to the new Veteran's Memorial Park in Sanford and a musical Salute to Veterans by the GOAD's music group.

Truett Cathy honored for 60 years in the restaurant business including Chick-fil-A and interview with Brooke Albert, recipient of the S. Truett Cathy Scholarship where she works in Winter Springs.

June 1

Red Cross 125th Anniversary remembered with local guests Maria Yabrudy with the Central Florida Red Cross in Orlando and Warrant Davis conducting a CPR training demonstration.

June 29

S.T.A.R.S. of West Orange founder/president Chesta Hembrooke describes public drive for Supplies to Assist ouR Students with a goal of helping 10,000 students by August.

John Stemberger and Nathan Dunn bring update on the Marriage Protection Act.

Good Life Broadcasting Public File 2006

Today's Family – Locally produced

Period of July-August-September, 2006

Prepared by Bill Freeman, Producer, Today's Family

Signature

Received by

July 6

Hurricane Special with representatives of government & faith-based organizations including Orlando Mayor Buddy Dyer, Emergency Mgr., Manny Soto, Maria Yabrudy of the Red Cross, Scott Harris of FEMA, Salvation Army Area Commander Major Sam Henry & stress counselor Dwight Bain, Destiny Assistance Center Director Scott George.

Pastor Scott George of Destiny Foundation on a school supplies collection event, "Stuff the Bus."

July 13

"Sober Alcoholic" Jay Kolo describes his experience and about his concept to help others addicted to alcohol.

Mat Staver with Liberty Counsel Update on domestic and religious freedom issues.

Dr. E. Lance McCarthy, president/ceo the Metro Orlando Urban League, discussing the state of the black church in Central Florida.

July 20

David Ballentine who tested with a perfect FCAT score describes his experience accompanied by parents who reacted to their son's exemplary accomplishment.

July 30

Danita Estrella with update on her Danita's Children ministry to Haiti including special surgery to remove a threatening tumor from a baby who accompanied her to the studio.

Author Blythe Lipman explains central theme of her book, Help, My Baby Came Without Instructions

August 31

John Jeyaseelan describes annual All Florida Peace for Israel Festival in Daytona Beach. Dr. Gary Smith and Dr. Sherlock Bally discuss plans for an unprecedented Christian Allies Conference with Israeli Knesset members at Dr. Smith's Heartland Community Church in Kissimmee-St. Cloud.

Associate pastor Molly Warren describes a "Celebrate Recovery" initiative at Asbury United Methodist Church in Maitland.

Fred Jones, real estate attorney & president of the Central Florida Real Estate Council, on status of housing market and legal issues including permitting for hurricane restoration.

Chef Audrey Lennon just back from a National Chef's Convention.

August 10

David & Dialis Romero describe purpose of Reach Out Orphanage in Atlantida, Honduras.

Arts & Worship Sabbath directors Terry Olson & Phyllis Thomas describe the interdenominational expression of faith through the arts.

August 24

Famed host of early television's House Party and author of Kids Say the Darndest Things, Art Linkletter, and co-founder of the world renowned Chicken Soup for the Soul series, appear together to discuss the "no retirement" theme of their new book, How to Make the Rest of Your Life the Best of Your Life.

Tommy Butler, founder of Family First Council of Winter Haven, explains the purpose of his organization to protect children from molesters.

Greg Kurth, Exec Dir of Family Services of Metro Orlando, describes the mission of his organization.

August 31, 2006

Orlando's Nickelodian Hotel creator, Terry Whaples, discusses her new objective to entertain and share her faith with children since sale of hotel.

September 7, 2006

Love a Child Haiti Directors Bobby & Sherry Burnette with two boys, Dieuferly & Dieubon, who were brought to the U.S. for medical care which successfully corrected their badly deformed club feet.

Tim & Lakhina Brown – Founders, Legacy of Hope International Cambodia projects, rescuing unwanted children from dangerous streets and situations. Lakhina also shared her life in the Killing Fields after the Vietnam War in 1975 and how her family escaped the tyranny of Pol Pot's regime.

September 14, 2006

Ted Baehr's Movieguide Review, Facing the Giants, modeling the virtues of moral correctness and a child's attitude toward their parents.

Pastor Jonathan Miller and wife, Cristina, announce the opening of a new Orlando area church, New Beginnings Healing Center.

Victor James Owner, an employee of Disney World and author of Why Am I? projecting individual self-worth & an a "can-do" attitude toward life's challenges.

Liberty Counsel Update by founder Mat Staver about religious and civic freedom challenges in the courts.

Campus Crusade for Christ International co-founder Vonette Bright with Judy Douglass, wife of Steve Douglass, President of the world-wide interdenominational missions organization, discussing the significance of an International Prayer Conference held in Seoul, South Korea.

Down Home Cook Barbara Beck in the kitchen preparing what she calls N.F.L. meals, "Nutritional, Filling & Low-Cal."

Body Balancer Tim Michaels continues series helping people of all ages know how to maintain a healthy lifestyle through a regimen of exercise and diet within reach of all economic levels.

September 21, 2006

Good Life Broadcasting Special highlighting the 24 years of WTLG TV 52 and noting a continuation of religious and family friendly programming service on Good Life Broadcasting's WLCB TV 45 after the license transfer of channel 52 to Trinity Broadcasting Network.

On Track Ministry founder Todd Shaw describes how he and his team take a positive message of moral values and spiritual support to go-cart tracks including Sunday morning worship services.

Pioneer Missions missionary Susanne Price brings a follow up report with photos on her missions trip to East Africa and how she helped women understand the economics of making handcrafted clothing & other goods.

Dr. Scott Brady, MD & CEO of Florida Hospital's 16 CentraCare walk-in clinics, and Founder of the Brady Institute for Health, describes a concept of how to be pain-free for life detailed in a new book.

Pastor Chris Sarno & wife, Liz, update the church life of the International Miracle Center in Daytona Beach.

September 28, 2006

Mat Staver, founder of the Liberty Counsel, with an update on how the 501c3 organization continues legal defense of religious freedom court challenges.

Frontline Outreach President Arto Woodley announces annual benefit luncheon, mainly attended by business people, in support of an energetic inner city program promoting youth of Orlando.

Chris Quenan-Lum, author of Pigeon with a Bright View, describes how her HorseDust Prison Ministry reaches out to help women who are incarcerated as she once was.

Dr. Barry Portnoy, Messianic Teacher & wife, Lana Portnoy, announce an annual Feast of Tabernacles which they produce at Calvary Assembly in Winter Park.

Dr. Pat Rush, author of Journey to Wholeness and pastor of Spirit Fire Church in Titusville on the Florida Spacecoast, describes a wholeness concept built on physical, spiritual and moral principles.

Body Balancer Tim Michaels continues his exercise & diet series.

Down Home Cook Barbara Beck stirs up nutritional, filling & low-calorie meals in the Today's Family kitchen.

Today's Family producer Bill Freeman "interviews" the 9th generation Lassie about the famous canine's new Lassie movie.

End 3rd Quarter 2006 FCC Public File Report

The 2006
4th Quarterly Issues/Problems Report for WTGL-TV is not in the Public File due to the transition of ownership during this period; there was no production of the local public affairs program.