Celebrating Jesus, Our Passover Lamb

Dear Friend and Partner,

As we prepare to celebrate the victorious resurrection of our Savior on this upcoming Easter Sunday, we are excited once again this year to bring our TBN viewers across the earth the powerful interactive presentation Jesus in the Passover, airing live on Thursday, April 6, at 8 p.m. Eastern, 7 p.m. Central.

In this life-changing live event, Messianic Rabbi Jason Sobel will guide us through an actual Jewish Passover Seder, using both Old and New Testament scriptures to explain the connect to the Jewish roots of faith, and the people of Israel. This celebration allows us to gain a much deeper understanding of the person and work of Messiah."

Over the years Laurie and I have participated in several Passover Seders, and each time we have been profoundly impacted by the truths revealed through the elements and the steps — about Jesus and His suffering, death, and resurrection, and about the forgiveness and redemption He purchased for each of us through His finished work on Calvary.

We want to personally invite you to join us for this live Passover Seder with Rabbi Jason and fellow believers around the world. In preparation please take a few moments to visit TBN.org/passover for a brief explanation of the simple elements you will need in order to fully participate.

profound meaning and symbolism of each element and step, and how it is all meant to reveal Jesus, the Messiah, and His redemptive purpose for all of humanity.

"Passover is more than just a holiday," explains Rabbi Jason. "It's a day when God protected His people, and it set in motion a series of events that led to Yeshua. Understanding Passover helps us to understand Scripture as a whole. Through it we dive into redemption and embrace what it meant during the Exodus — and what it means for us today."

One thing many Christians may not realize is that the Last Supper Jesus shared with His disciples just a day before His crucifixion on Good Friday — and upon which we base our Communion observance — was actually a traditional Jewish Passover Seder. When we participate in a Passover Seder, we have an opportunity to gain a deeper understanding of the character of Jesus, our Messiah, and His heart of compassion and mercy for each of us.

"Messiah Yeshua lived and died as an observant Jew who sought to fulfill God's promises to the Jewish people, bring salvation to Israel, and the Nations," Rabbi Jason explains in his book Messiah's Seder: A Passover Experience for Christians and Messianic Jews. "Every aspect of the Passover Seder points to Him. By celebrating Passover, we honor, remember, and reenact what He did with His disciples. We also

We also want to emphasize to you, dear friend, that when you pray for and financially support TBN, you are helping to bring these kinds of life-changing programs to individuals and families around the world through TBN's thirty-plus international networks, as well as our many online platforms. Your partnership in TBN's global outreach of God's love means that untold millions of people have the opportunity to put their faith in Jesus, the Messiah, and receive His incomparable gift of salvation, healing, and hope. Thank you for standing with us!

The Chosen: Season Two
Coming Soon

An awakening is coming to the next generation

In early February the news went out across America and the world that revival had broken out on the campus of Asbury University in Wilmore, Kentucky. It began February 8 as around 100 students came forward to seek God during a worship time in the campus chapel. In the weeks following, nearly every student on campus was touched in some way by God's presence. The most exciting thing is that it is continuing at Asbury—and has spread across the nation.

Shortly after the outpouring began, Alexandra Presta, editor of the student-run Asbury University online news site, wrote: "As a senior, I have never witnessed anything like this. Peers, professors, local church leaders, and seminary students surround me—all of them praying, worshipping, and praising God together. Voices are ringing out. People are bowing at the altar, arms stretched wide."

Anneli White, a student visiting from the University of Kentucky, described what she experienced at Asbury:

"Chains were broken, confession happened, and God was praised as holy, holy, holy."

Another Asbury student, Christian Alexander, told CBN News: "My prayer is that this will encourage churches, encourage pastors, and encourage believers, and just stir up a hunger for the Lord, because it's not about Asbury, it's about Jesus."

Experience it for yourself! In late February TBN aired a live broadcast at Asbury that included coverage of the 2023 Collegiate Day of Prayer, which was hosted by the university. Scan the QR code above to view this program, hosted by Sheila Walsh and Ron McIntosh. Find out how prayer is fueling an awakening on college campuses and a new generation of young people.

Reaching TURKEY With God's Love

A major earthquake hit Turkey February 6, devastating the eastern part of the nation and destroying the cities of Antakya, Sanliurfa, and others, killing over 40,000 people and leaving more than one million homeless.

In the midst of the tragedy and pain, TBN's digital affiliate Turkish network Kanal Hayat has been pouring the love of Jesus into the nation with both live and on-demand programs

Some of the very first Christian churches were established in the land that is now Turkey, in cities like Smyrna, Pergamum, and Philadelphia. The goal of Kanal Hayat is to bring the gospel back to Turkey and the surrounding areas of the Middle East.

and content in the Turkish language. Additionally, said network manager Martin Tangstad, volunteers and network ministry partners have been on the ground in the devastated areas distributing much needed aid.

"In the midst of the destruction and darkness, we believe that God can show light and spread hope," said Mr. Tangstad, who noted that Kanal Hayat has aired regular live prayer meetings for those in the worst areas. "In these meetings, we stand together in prayer for Turkey and all the people affected," he said. "We pray for God's mercy and peace to all affected."

He added that the most important thing people can do right now is cover the Turkish people in prayer. "God's power is greater than anything else on this earth. Right now, please join us in praying for Turkey and the surrounding countries that are also affected."
