Beloved T.B.U. Co-Partners:

These are the most exciting and exhilarating days ever to exist since time began! We should thank God every day that we are that most privileged choice generation to whom God has entrusted these last days of this earth's history. The Apostle Peter said it:

But ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, an holy nation, a peculiar people; that ye should shew forth the praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into His marvellous light.

1 Peter 2:9

Yes, God is trusting you and me to complete His work on earth just before His Son, Jesus Christ, returns in power and great glory!

To know precisely what that work is and what exactly God expects you and me to do we should turn to St. Mark, chapter 16. Reread the entire chapter but particularly verses 15 through 20. Notice especially verse 20:

And they went forth and preached everywhere, the Lord working with them, and confirming the word with signs following.

Can you imagine what would happen if every Christian in Los Angeles area and in Phoenix area literally did as these first century Christians did? I can assure you on the authority of God's Word that WHEN this generation obeys the same command of Jesus, we will see the same results, namely — "confirmation of the Word with signs following.

Praise the Lord, thousands are awakening and are catching the vision of this final and finest hour of earth's history. The final Revival has come! The harvest is being reaped! In spite of gloom and despair and distress of nations everywhere — there is a new light in the eye of every true child of God. Joy and victory flow like a great river, a sense of great expectancy charges the very atmosphere! The King Is Coming!

To learn more exactly what God expects of us in these final hours, a careful study of the Book of Acts is necessary. In fact, the Book of Acts is the most important book in the Bible for Christians at this unique and exciting time. In Acts we have the blueprint for the building of the Church which is the Body of Christ.

Jesus tells the disciples to tarry until they are baptized in the Holy Spirit. (1:8)

The Church is born. (2:4)

They went from house to house, sharing the Good News of Jesus' resurrection. (2:43-47)

The Good News explodes into the whole world as persecution drives the Christians out of Jerusalem. (4:1-37)

The sick are healed and the dead are raised to life again.

Praise the Lord, new chapters of Acts are being written as the Holy Spirit prepares the Body of Christ for that last great spine-tingling, earth shattering event — THE RAPTURE OF THE CHURCH, HIS BRIDE!

One of those new chapters of the Book of Acts is CHRISTIAN TELEVISION! Praise the Lord, you dear partners are helping to write it as we see God's mighty power exploding throughout these United States and the World!! Get ready — we too shall see the Word confirmed with signs following, on Christian Television.

Beloved Partners — This is a call to ACTION — NOW! Move on into a powerful new dimension with God. Be filled with the Spirit! Be a witness wherever you are! Do exploits in Jesus' Name! Drive on deep into enemy territory! We have the Power, we have the authority — we have the command of Jesus to do so.

Hear the command from Jesus' own lips:

All Power is given unto me in heaven and in earth. Go ye therefore, and teach all nations baptizing them in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost: Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: And lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the World. Amen.

We are praying for you that God will use you to do EXPLOITS in Jesus' Name! Thank you for helping to keep the GOOD NEWS on Christian Television — because of your prayers and regularly monthly love gifts, Channel 40 in Los Angeles, alarm. God bless you our beloved Partners — we do love you with all our hearts. Pray for us, and remember —

LET EVERYTHING THAT HATH BREATH — PRAISE THE LORD!!

TOUCH NOT MINE ANOINTED

Used by permission of JAMIE BUCKINGHAM

I HAD JUST finished speaking to a large group in the Atlanta Civic Auditorium. The subject was "Restoration" — the fresh move of God's Spirit today.

Still flushed with the excitement of ministering under God's anointing, I stepped off the stage to speak to the usual flock of well-wishers.

"Thank you . . . yes, God is good . . . yes, I remember you from Cincinnati . . . it's nice to know your husband reads Logos Journal . . . so glad to see you again . . . sorry, I don't have time to read your 400 page manuscript before dinner . . ."

Suddenly I was looking into the narrowed eyes of a very intense man. His lips were pursed and grayish in color. His Bible was open to Peter's warning about false teachers.

"You almost told these people to come out of their dead denominational churches," he said in a thin voice.

"You're right," I answered. "I almost did. But I didn't."

He pointed his finger at the Bible. "But why didn't you tell them the denominational church is Babylon? They need to be warned before it is too late."

I suspected I was about to waste my breath, but I could not let the question go begging.

"I'll tell you why," I said. "For the same reason King David refused to take action against King Saul, even though Saul had turned his back on God. David knew it was God who set Saul in his position; and it was God who would have to remove him. Besides, Saul gave David his start in the ministry. When Saul turned apostate, David's soldiers wanted to take his life. David prevented it. 'For who can stretch forth his hand against the Lord's anointed, and be guiltless.'"

As I suspected, the man didn't hear me. He walked away, muttering something about preachers who had lost their salt. But the principle remains valid. God will not hold us guiltless if we take up the sword against his anointed — even if they are attempting to kill us.

Recently the pastor of one of the world's largest evangelical churches lashed out against those who speak in tongues. He was quoted on the front page of the Dallas Times-Herald as saying that speaking in tongues is "senseless, idiotic, heretical, divisive and hurtful."

He added, "Not in the history of Christianity is there an example of a great Christian leader who ever spoke in an unknown tongue."

"Stop the women from speaking in tongues," he said with insolence, "and you'll never hear about it again."

Of course that's just the kind of bait I rise to. My salivary glands worked overtime as I tasted the words I would use to defend the Holy Spirit. After all, I had the facts working for me — and the Bible, too.

Then God reminded me of the great work this pastor has done in the name of Jesus. He reminded me of the mission thrust of his huge church and the denomination he represents. In fact, it was through this very denomination I came to know the Lord Jesus. These were the people who educated me and gave me my start in the ministry. So, instead of taking up my pen to blast back, I backed off. The Lord forbid that I should "stretch forth mine hand against the Lord's anointed."

There is enough division in the Body already without me or anyone else trying to knock down somebody else's straw horse.

If a man does not agree with my doctrine, that is his problem. Not mine. Like Nehemiah, why should I come down from the task God has given me, to debate silly questions. Instead of proving him wrong I should love him, pray for him, encourage him where he is right and forgive him where he is ignorant.

A wise man once told me, "To be right satisfies the ego. To be kind satisfies God." And in the flyleaf of my Bible I have written, "Jamie, you cannot defend the Holy Spirit and reveal him at the same time."

My old Pentecostal friend, David du Plessis puts it this way, "God has not called me to accuse the brethren. He has called me to forgive."

It is time to focus in on the things that unite us, rather than the things that divide. This means I cannot stretch forth my hand against the Lord's anointed lest haply I be found even to fight against God. Whether my enemies return that grace is irrelevant. I have no choice but to return love for evil done.

Paul and Jan, Jerry and Sandy, Frank and Rachel and Mom Taylor and 150 beautiful TBN Partners are in the Holy Land and oh! we wish you were here with us — the HOLY LAND — where Jesus was born — where He grew — taught — preached — healed the sick — and where He will COME AGAIN and set up His earthly Kingdom.

We want you to go with us — we want Your life to be changed — we want the Bible to LIVE when you read it — See the places you read about in the Bible! See Jerusalem — the Capitol of the World when Jesus comes!
