Beloved TBN Co-Partners:

And I sought for a man among them, that should make up the hedge, and stand in the gap before me for the land, that I should not destroy it: BUT I FOUND NONE.

Eze. 22:30

This is one of the saddest verses of scripture found in the Bible. Israel was at her lowest ebb spiritually. In just 5 short years Nebuchadnezzar, King of Babylon, would invade Judah and destroy the city of Jerusalem and the Temple King Solomon had built. God was seeking for some way to avoid sending the judgment which His people, the Jews, so richly deserved.

They had defiled the Name of God by serving the heathen gods of the land. They had committed every kind of sin and abomination until the stench of their sins had sickened the very heart of God. But even in this condition, God, who always desires to show mercy and love, was seeking for a way to stay His hand of wrath and judgment. And, in this awful dilemma, God says, I sought for a man. God needed an intercessor...one who would pray and plead before God that He should withhold His hand of righteous judgment - one who would cry out to God and remind Him of His promises to Abraham and later to His servant David. One who would plea bargain with God as Abraham did when He pled with God not to destroy the wicked cities of Sodom and Gomorrah. But the tragic word came forth from God:

But I found none. Therefore have I poured out mine indignation upon them; I have consumed them with the fire of my wrath.... Eze. 22:31

What a tragedy, what a dark day for God's people, for in just 5 years, Jerusalem lay waste - the beautiful temple a heap of ruin - all of the princes and people, the treasures of Judah led away captive to Babylon. All because there was no one to pray!

Beloved partners, God has been burning this message into my heart: "Call My people to prayer - intercede before My face that I may spare your land and give you great spiritual fruit for your hire". I am obeying the Lord...we are asking you to join our 24 hour prayer chain as we intercede to God on behalf of lost souls. As we cry out to God, I know the time will come when we will see not hundreds, but thousands of souls find Jesus on a single PRAISE THE LORD program!

We are entering a dimension of spiritual warfare that terrifies Satan and all of his legions. We have the Power in Jesus' Name to spoil his house and to wrest from his grasp the precious souls of men and women, boys and girls. GLORY BE TO GOD.... WE WILL DO IT! We will rattle the very gates of hell as we fast and pray and cry out to God day and night...we will "Make up the hedge and stand in the gap" and see the Glory of God revealed before Jesus comes.

Write to us and let us know the particular hour of the day that you will be engaged in prayer for your TV ministry, for those unsaved loved ones, for your country, for your healing. We will add your name to our beautiful new prayer clock and will be reading your names from time to time on television. Oh, I know you will respond and that we will see mighty miracles and exploits for the glory of God.

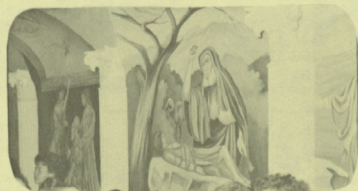

We love you more and more and will be praying for you and your needs as you make them known to us by your letters.

God love and keep you is our daily prayer and always remember...

Let everything that hath breath, PRAISE THE LORD!

Paul

A House of Prayer is descriptive of the new Channel 40 Television Studios. The focal point and very first place that visitors seek out is the inspiring Prayer Chapel. It is symbolic of the entire Trinity Broadcasting Network operation for its conception, birth and growth have been accomplished only through prayer. This spiritual emphasis is evident as the staff, hosts, counsellors and crew are all encouraged to give prayer top priority. It is fitting therefore, that the Prayer Chapel should be a place of beauty and inspiration, graced by the Presence of the Lord.

The arched entrance of the Prayer Chapel reveals the "Drama of the Ages" portrayed in oil murals covering the entire wall and ceiling area. Some have compared the work to a miniature Sistine Chapel, Michealangelos' triumph. The most striking scene is that of the Second Coming of the Lord Jesus Christ as the king of Kings and lord of Lords. When finished, the painted feet will be just above the large rock which Jan and Paul brought back from the Mount of Olives in the Holy Land. This unique rock will rest on a low altar which will be inscribed with the words, "Behold! I come quickly!"

The artist, Jane Garrison came to TBN in a most unusual way that can only be explained by the leading of the Holy Spirit. She is contributing her time and talent to the Lord, thus fulfilling the desire in her heart "to do something for Channel 40".

Jane enjoys painting and is blessed by the many partners who visit daily. Her work when completed, will include scenes of Adam and Eve being thrust out of the Garden; Noah in the Ark, Abraham sacrificing Isaac, Moses at the Red Sea Crossing, Daniel in the Lion's Den, The Birth of Christ, The Baptism of Jesus in the Jordan by John, The Crucifixion, The Resurrection, The Second Coming, and The New Jerusalem.

Love Letters from our Sweet Partners

Dear Paul & Jan: I had a heart attack last Nov. and was in and out of the hospital 3 times since then, but I am praising God for my healing after many prayers went to the throne of God. I'm feeling my old self again.

Albert Rosenberg, Cudahy, CA

Dear Bro. & Sis. in Christ: My life was so dark that I thought there was no way out. I hurt mentally and physically. One night after reading the Word, I dropped to my knees and gave my heart to the Lord. Your program brought me to realize there was life in Jesus. I know that was the Holy Spirit convicting me. PTL!

Geraldine Slagle, Ontario, CA

Upon viewing my very first TBN program I became hooked. Last week I felt compelled to phone in, and one of your counsellors led me in the "sinners prayer. I now accept Jesus as my Personal Saviour. PTL!

Jerry Whitney, Cerritos, CA

Dear Paul & Jan: I just wanted to share with you the blessing I received that very special evening the Holy Spirit filled the Chapel and gave a very special message to all there. Just two days prior I received my prayer language. The moment in the Chapel took on a much more deeper meaning to me. This was the best vacation I've ever had or ever will have. Deniece Brown, Lancaster, CA

*Hi sweet angel family,
It was sooo fantastic seeing your beautiful faces at the Miracle Rally in Anaheim - all 10,000 of you!!! Thank you, Thank you for coming and being a part of the miracle! - over 500 new babies & 100's of healings.
Thank you sweet Jesus for coming to our Rally. We love you so much - I got Ho Hug so many of you - I just sat on the platform & hugged sweet

Wow! Our partners & Jesus at the same banquet table! I what a day that will be! I can't wait! I love you sooo much.
Jesus loves you! Your sis, Jan*

PRAYER PARTNERS: LET'S PRAY!

Many people grieve because they have been denied service on the mission field or in some other chosen endeavor. Through faithful intercession they may accomplish as much and reap as full a reward as though they had been on the field in person. Those who lament that they have been cheated in life because they have no shining gifts or spectacular talents, or those who have been retired by age or illness, may, through faithful intercession, share in the heavenly reward equally with the most highly endowed, all because PRAYER IS WHERE THE ACTION IS.

This leaves no room for self-pity or envy of those more gifted, provided one is willing to fill his place as a prayer warrior. In heaven's "book" the nameless saint in the most remote and secluded spot, completely lost to view, and overshadowed in the battle, is just as important, and if he is faithful, will receive just as great a reward, as the most heralded and gifted leader. Hallelujah! So let's PRAY!

1. All our little partner's needs.
2. The management and staff of Channel 40 Working so many long and hard hours to bring 100%, 15 hours a day - 7 days a week, Christian TV into YOUR home.

DESTINED FOR THE THRONE

A program of prayer without faith is powerless. The missing element that is necessary to energize prevailing prayer that binds and casts out Satan is triumphant faith. And the missing element that is necessary to energize triumphant faith is praise—perpetual, purposeful, aggressive praise. Praise is the highest form of prayer because it combines petition with faith. Praise is the spark plug of faith. It is the one thing needed to get faith airborne, enabling it to soar above the deadly miasma of doubt. Praise is the detergent which purifies faith and purges doubt from the heart. The secret of answered prayer is faith without doubt (Mark 11:23). And the secret of faith without doubt is praise, triumphant praise, continuous praise, praise that is a way of life. This is the solution to the problem of a living faith and successful prayer.

The secret of success in overcoming Satan and qualifying for the throne is a massive program of effective prayer. The secret of effective prayer is a massive program of praise.

Paul E. Billheimer

Mrs. Frances Metcalf, in her little book Making His Praise Glorious, has called attention to the passages of Scripture which inform us that God's dwelling place is "between the cherubim": Psalm 80:1, 99:1, and Isaiah 37:16. While these passages refer to the cherubim covering the Ark of the Covenant, those cherubim are only an earthly reflection of the heavenly reality. They take their significance from the cherubim which surround the throne of the majesty on high, who rest not day and night, saying "Holy, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty." God dwells in an aura, an atmosphere, an enswathement of praise. Praise and His presence have a mutual affinity. Although God is omnipresent, He is not everywhere present in benign influence. Where there is joyful praise, there He is dynamically and benevolently active. In Psalm 22:3 we are told that God "inhabits the praises" of His people. This means that wherever there is adoration, reverence, and acceptable worship and praise, there He identifies and openly manifests His presence. And His presence always expels Satan. Satan cannot operate in the divine ambience. For years many have known that praise is power without fully understanding why. May this not be the explanation? Is it not a convincing rationale for praise? In short, Satan is allergic to praise, so where there is massive, triumphant praise, Satan is paralyzed, bound, and banished. PRAISE THE LORD!
