God's Pathway to Peace and Purpose

Dear Partner and Friend,

It's August, and if your world is anything like Laurie's and mine, then your summer months have most likely been a whirlwind of hustle and bustle — summer trips and vacations, memorable times with friends and family, all mixed in with the unending business-as-usual activities that make up our daily world.

From time to time there's also a crisis added to the mix, such as Laurie and I experienced in mid-June when we found ourselves flying into Jerusalem just as the military conflict between Israel and Iran was heating up. What we were to discover shortly after landing was that we had a very narrow window to fly out again before Iranian missiles began to rain down upon Israel. As you might imagine, it was a moment of fervent prayer for us — and God was faithful to cover us with His protection.

Over the past forty years, we've had many occasions to travel in and out of hot spots across the earth as TBN takes the good news of Jesus to every inhabited continent. And over every mile we've traveled, and through every circumstance, we've always been able to count on two factors in our favor: the prayers of partners like you on behalf of this ministry, and the unbreakable promise of Jesus, who assures us: “... lo, I am with you always, even to the end of the age” (Matthew 28:20, NKJV).

Of course, not everyone is called to travel to the ends of the earth on behalf of the Gospel, or to face the challenges that come with taking the good news of Jesus to regions that are sometimes dangerous and unstable. But for each of us as believers walking out the faith journey God has placed before us, we have the privilege of looking daily to our heavenly Father for protection, direction, and favor. And His promise through the finished work of Jesus is the same for each of us: “Don't worry about anything; instead, pray about everything. Tell God what you need, and thank him for all he has done. Then you will experience God's peace, which exceeds anything we can understand. His peace will guard your hearts and minds as you live in Christ Jesus” (Philippians 4:6-7, NLT).

Through your prayer and financial partnership, that is the message we are sending around the world 24 hours a day on TBN. And we are finding that individuals are more open than ever to this

TBN'S MISSION FOR A NEW ERA A note from TBN's Caylan Crouch

For over fifty years, TBN has shown the world what faith, vision, and innovation can achieve. From its beginnings as a small UHF station in California to the global broadcasting giant it is today, TBN has never shied away from change. That's because our mission is timeless — to take the good news of Jesus to every corner of the earth.

Today's 5G broadcast is introducing a revolutionary delivery system to help us continue to fulfill this timeless mission. It offers us a new opportunity to connect with people wherever they are, giving them the message that transcends technology: grace, hope, and love through Christ. The spirit that built TBN — bold and faith-filled pioneering — is the same spirit that will carry this ministry into the next era of broadcasting and beyond.

TBN's legacy isn't about technology. It's about people. It's about souls. It's about JESUS, being willing to meet the world where it is — and offering an eternal relationship with Him. And that mission remains unchanged.

Caylan Crouch is a third-generation leader at TBN, where he has served full time since 2011. Combining hands-on production expertise with strategic leadership, Caylan brings a deep understanding of TBN's worldwide reach and a strong commitment to stewarding its legacy and expanding its mission.

message of peace that is available through Christ. It's no secret that uncertainty and fear are on the rise and gripping the hearts and minds of many. People are looking for a peace and assurance that only Jesus can give.

And around the clock, TBN's life-changing teaching, worship, ministry, and more is touching people right where they live — bringing salvation, healing, and hope through Christ. "If it wasn't for TBN, I'd be lost," Jamelle wrote to us recently. "TBN saved my life and has given me new freedom. Thank you."

Similarly, Susan reached out to tell us: "Thank you for your dedication in broadcasting such wonderful and inspirational programming. Whenever I turn on TBN, I know that I will be encouraged in my faith." These and so many other letters we receive make it clear that TBN is providing an oasis of encouragement for countless viewers searching for hope and peace in a world filled with turmoil.

In Matthew 11:28, Jesus offers an invitation to all who struggle under the unbearable weight of this world's oppression and sin: "Come to Me, all you who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest." And here at TBN, through your financial support, we are helping individuals find that rest and peace through life-transforming content that reveals Jesus and His hope and grace for all humanity.

Every day your generous support is providing the seeds for miracles of salvation, hope, and healing for people around the world. Thank you for joining us in this epic outreach of God's love. Your partnership is making a difference every day.

ABIDING IN HIS PERFECT PEACE

BY PASTOR D ROBINSON

In our hectic, hurried world, it’s not surprising that when asked what they would like more of in everyday life, most people place peace at the top of the list. But according to experts, throughout thousands of years of recorded history our world has enjoyed complete peace for a total of less than 300 years. If peace is so highly valued by so many, why is it so hard to find?

One of the main reasons is that most people are searching for peace and purpose in all the wrong places. They think that things like a successful career, more money and possessions, or the right relationship will bring them the peace and satisfaction they crave. Meanwhile they ignore the One whom God’s Word calls the Prince of Peace (Isaiah 9:6).

You see, God’s only begotten Son, Jesus, willingly gave His life to purchase our salvation, a perfect salvation that includes peace in every area of life.

Before He went to heaven to take His place at the right hand of the Father, Jesus gave us this promise: “Peace I leave you, My peace I give you; not as the world gives, do I give to you. Do not let your hearts be troubled, nor fearful” (John 14:27, NASB).

Are you weary, troubled, burdened, or fearful? Jesus has an invitation especially for you: “Come to Me ... and I will give you rest” (Matthew 11:28, NASB). Yes, He has many more promises and blessings for you as well. But it all begins with finding your rest and peace in Him. Enter in today, dear friend.

Pastor D Robinson is the TBN Networks Pastor and Vice President of Pastoral Relations.
