Embracing the Heart of Worship

Dear Partner and Friend,

October is an exciting month for all of us at TBN, as we feature one of our most popular and highly anticipated programs — the annual GMA Dove Awards. Each year we have the privilege of joining with the Gospel Music Association to honor the best in Christian music and highlight the songs that are encouraging people in their faith and love for Jesus (see page 4 for more about this year's Dove Awards).

... as we lift our hearts in worship and song to the Lord, we make a powerful proclamation that Jesus is our Savior, Healer, Deliverer, and so much more. He is worthy!

The Bible is filled with timeless exhortations of how music and worship go hand-in-hand with proclaiming the good news of Jesus. Psalm 96:2 encourages us: “Sing to the Lord, bless His name. Proclaim the good news of His salvation from day to day.”

In another of the Psalms, King David declares: “I will praise You, O Lord, with my whole heart; I will tell of all Your marvelous works. I will be glad and rejoice in You; I will sing praise to Your name, O Most High” (Psalm 9:1-2).

And in Colossians the apostle Paul admonishes us: “Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom, teaching and admonishing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your hearts to the Lord.”

Scripture makes it clear that music is integral to worship, as it helps us posture our hearts toward the One who is worthy of our praise, and the only One who can save us. II Chronicles 20:21 records that when Old Testament Judah went out to battle, its warriors were preceded by worshipers who sang, “Praise the Lord, for His mercy endures forever.” In a modern context, as we lift our hearts in worship and song to the Lord, we make a powerful proclamation that Jesus is our Savior, Healer, Deliverer, and so much more. He is worthy!

EMBRACING THE HEART OF WORSHIP

DONNIE MCCLURKIN WITH MATT & LAURIE CROUCH

Recently Laurie and I sat down with one of our favorite Gospel singers and worship leaders, Donnie McClurkin. Over the years, Donnie has won several Grammy, Dove, and other music awards. Most importantly, he's passionate about the crucial role worship has in helping us, as believers, make Jesus known to a lost world in need of His love and salvation.

"Jesus Christ is the center and the real impetus of the Gospel message, and our music should reflect that — our lives should reflect that," Donnie told us. "We should be intentional in presenting this good news of Jesus to people."

Whether it's the beloved hymns and choruses many of us grew up on, or the dynamic, new worship music that is touching so many hearts today, communicating the good news of Jesus has got to be our priority. "We have to get out there and tell people about His love," Donnie emphasized. "God's heart is for us to rescue the perishing, weep over the lost, and tell everyone about this mighty Christ who can save them. That is what God is calling us to do in this day and hour."

This good news of Jesus and the salvation and hope He has for every person is at the very heart of worship. That's why we are honored to host the Dove Awards and other programs filled with worship and the truth of God's love in Christ. Through the prayer and support of friends like you, our mission is to clearly communicate the Gospel message, to lead searching individuals to faith in Him, and to provide teaching, ministry, worship, and other content that strengthens people in their walk of faith every day.

Whether through your one-time gift or as a TBN Ambassador monthly giver, your financial support helps us broadcast powerful worship, teaching, and ministry to millions who need to hear of God's love and His promise of salvation.

Thank you for standing with us,

Matt and Laurie Crouch

Worship in Spirit & Truth

BY PASTOR D ROBINSON

Pastor D Robinson is the TBN Networks Pastor and Vice President of Pastoral Relations.

Worship can take many forms, but for each of us as believers, it is nothing other than love for our Lord. Worship is an attitude of gratitude based on our personal relationship with Jesus.

In New Testament Jerusalem, most people would go to the temple to worship. But Jesus came to bring salvation and forgiveness of sins so that God's dwelling place would be in our own hearts. That is what Jesus meant when He told the woman at the well that the hour was coming when "true worshipers will worship the Father in spirit and truth..." (John 4:23).

Because of Christ's death and resurrection, true worship does not require a specific location. Instead, it is an internal posture of the heart, led by the Spirit of Truth—the Holy Spirit! This is the worship God desires, because He knows it's only through the Holy Spirit that we are able to worship in truth. He also knows that we must be born again through His Son and receive His gift of eternal life and the victorious power of His Holy Spirit.

"As we allow God's Word to mold us ... we are transformed into worshipers who long to behold our Lord in His beauty and holiness."

When you are born again, God's Holy Spirit comes into your heart and awakens your spirit. His Spirit unites with your spirit, and that's where He dwells. God's Holy Spirit living in you leads you into all the truth, empowers you for victorious living, and fills you with the joy, strength, and confidence of the Lord.

Your worship is the outflow of that joy—and comes from the confidence that you dwell under the lordship of the Creator of the universe, who loves you and has a lifetime and eternity of blessing for you in His presence.

Take some time to worship the Lord today, telling Him how much you love and trust Him. He is worthy!
