

JUCE TV Monthly Report

January kicked off Season 2 of JUCE Live and JUCE Live After Party. Each week we had a packed and energetic audience with great guests that included Disney Channel star Samantha Droke, Forgiven Boutique founder Hector Orama, Hillsong Phoenix pastor Brandon Thompson, Hollywood music producer and guitarist Kerry “2 Smooth” Marshall, Grammy nominee Tauren Wells, singer-songwriter Mike Lee, and Pastor Ben Prescott from Free Chapel Irvine. The JUCE Live team have been working closely with local churches and their pastors to attend our live tapings. Both the churches and attendees have commented how the show has blessed them. JUCE Live guests have also commented on the positive feedback and opportunities they have received after appearing on our show.

This past month JUCE TV partnered with New Release Today, the most visited and largest Christian music website online, to present the We Love Christian Music Awards (WLCMA). One unique aspect about WLCMA is that it is a fan voted awards show for Christian music. This year with JUCE TV and New Release Today working together, fan participations doubled with over 92,000 registered votes compared to a historic average of 40,000 fan votes. This was a result of both artists and Christian music labels getting behind the effort and encouraging their fans to vote online. Altogether, JUCE TV enjoyed 1,617,133 total impressions during the voting process for the We Love Christian Music Awards. JUCE TV will be broadcasting the special starting Sunday, March 5th @ 4PM (PT)/ 7PM (ET), 7PM (PT)/ 10 PM (ET) and Sunday, March 6th @ 2AM (PT)/ 5AM

JUCE TV also took a spot on the red carpet for the 25th annual Movieguide Awards held in Universal City this month. We were able to capture interviews from celebrity guests, record content for our online platforms, and host an episode of Hot Off the Press on location. Some of the many guests we interviewed included actress Melissa Joan Hart, The Book of Esther actress Jen Lilley, five time NBA champion Derek Fisher, Pat Boone, Devon Franklin, Olivia Newton-John and many more.
