

JUCE TV Monthly Report

This past month has been another eventful one for JUCE TV. At the end of September, JUCE TV traveled to Atlanta to broadcast Georgia Harvest Crusade live for three straight nights. Harvest Ministries, led by Pastor Greg Laurie, assembled a stellar line up of artists and guests including Third Day, Lecrae, Phil Wickham, Louie Giglio, and America's Worship Leader Chris Tomlin. Each night was capped by a salvation message delivered by Pastor Greg. As part of our live coverage of Harvest Georgia, JUCE TV also interviewed many of the participating artists that we played back during the live feed and additional content for future use on JUCE TV.

A week later, JUCE TV was in Nashville for the biggest night in Christian Music, the 47th annual GMA Dove Awards. JUCE TV's presence was felt everywhere at the awards show with JUCE TV's own Brittany Gonzales and Willie Moore Jr. hosting portions of the Doves.

Top 3 constructed a stage in front of the Dove Awards auditorium to tape complete Top 3 shows with the likes of Mathew West, new Artist of the Year Jordan Feliz, Tye Tribbett, for KING & COUNTRY, and multi-platinum country artist Hillary Scott, who has crossed over to Christian music with this year's biggest hit single "Thy Will." In addition, JUCE TV hosts staked out a prime location on the red carpet to interview this year's nominees and had a set backstage to congratulate and interview the Dove winners.

We continued to keep pace with our other productions, including tapings of The Chuckie Perez Show, Hot off the Press, tapings for The Josh Moore Show (a new series coming to JUCE TV in January), Real Videos, XVZ, TX-10, and Rewind in addition to taping several new segments for insertion into Hot off the Press and Top 3.

JUCE Live continues to evolve and generate momentum for JUCE TV. Some of the guests this past month included music artist Britt Nicole, U.S. Olympian Danyelle Wolf, former NFL running back Terrell Fletcher, movie star Stephaune Wallace, and popular Christian film actor Ben Davies, who stars in the recent release I Am Not Ashamed.
