

Programming and Production

Bill Cornelius hosted the "From Dream to Destiny" themed Praise featuring Jonathan Falwell, David Crank, and Jay Haizlip.

Joy in Our Town welcomed Susan Stephens with Exodus Ministries, who spoke about breaking the cycle of generational crime. Michelle Conner shared how Grace Like Rain Ministries extends God's love to families which have suffered devastation. Lynnne Anderson with Refuge for Women North Texas explained that aftercare assistance for trafficked and sexually exploited victims is the heartbeat of their organization. Mike Myers with Beautiful Feet Ministries spoke about their endeavors to feed and serve the homeless community in Fort Worth. Leann Rice with the Lord's Hands and Hearts Ministries described their work in transforming the lives of the homeless for Christ in Dallas. Dorothy Moore with Reconciliation Outreach explained their objective is to create a Christian community in the inner city. Teri Petty informed us that families who have experienced recent homelessness are ministered to by Family Promise of Irving. Susan Frank spoke about the way the ministry Hearts for Homes performs home repairs for seniors and the disabled. Dave Woodyard described how Catholic Charities of Dallas advocates for and empowers people in need.

