

Programming & Production

Bishop T. D. Jakes hosted a "creative ministry" themed Praise featuring guests Dr. Bill Winston, Cora Jakes Coleman, and Drew Castillo.

Wilfredo Santos hosted Praise Salsa Style! with guests Enrique Nunez, Jaime Hernandez, and Geo Vasquez, with music by Abigail Garcia.

Esencia with hosts Ruben and Susan Mendez, a marriage-themed program that includes cooking segments, interviews with interesting couples, and teaching, was taped at Shiloh Ranch studios. This month's treats included a classic mandarin orange cake, fire roasted salsa, steak fajita nachos, and steak fajitas with corn tortillas and pico de gallo.

Dr. Andrea Ramirez and Dr. Gus Reyes hosted Raising the Standards, a program dedicated to highlighting the advantages of higher education.

Joy In Our Town welcomed Matthew Zibbell with The Men of Nehemiah who spoke about serving homeless and incarcerated men in Dallas. Greg Ambrosion with Adult and Teen Challenge of Azle talked about Christian solutions to life-controlling addictions. Noble Crawford, Jr. with H.O.P.E. Farm described how their organization guides at-risk boys into becoming Christ-centered men of integrity.

John Ramsey with Tarrant County Hands of Hope spoke about helping the unsheltered homeless of Tarrant County. Sgt. Rodney Hinkle with Salvation Army described how they are helping people in all types of challenging situations. Michelle DeGrate with Christian Community Action talked about helping the unemployed in Dallas.

