March Community Outreach

KNAT-TV23 presented Birga Alden, Executive Director of Love INC, with office supplies. Birga was elated and stated, “Offices supplies are sometimes pricy. We are continually having to restock our supplies. Thank you, TBN.” Love INC of Albuquerque is a nonprofit organization that was established to mobilize the Church to transform lives and communities In the Name of Christ. Their main goal is to bring to Albuquerque a proven strategy to help churches help their neighbors in need.

FOR CHRIST

KNAT-TV provided a supply of paper goods and toiletries to the men's recovery home of Calvary Chapel Southwest with Pastor Mike Gomez, U-Turn for Christ.

New Mexico Broadcasters Association

KNAT-TV hosted the New Mexico Broadcasters Association ascertainment breakfast. Our guest speakers were Bishop David C. Cooper, New Hope Full Gospel Baptist Church; Pastor Danny Sanchez, Victory Outreach of Albuquerque; Pastor Joey Basey, Restoration Ministries and Pastor Richard A. Mansfield, New Beginnings Church of God. Representatives from the local media were present and discussed the main concerns they have in our city. We intentionally invited pastors from all quadrants of the city to present the work each of them do to help solve the issues that were pointed out.

Pastor's Day at the State Capital

KNAT-TV partnered with NM PRAYS and participated in Pastor's Day held at the State Capital Rotunda on March 15, 2017. It was very well attended by pastors and ministers throughout our state. Station manager, Cindy Mansfield and U.S. Congressman Bill Redman were invited to participate in a private conference with New Mexico's Governor Susana Martinez, led by NM PRAYS coordinators, Pastor Brian and Mercy Alarid, Pastor Danny Sanchez, Pastor Richard Mansfield and John and Lori Robb.
