

KNMT
Portland

February 2017

JOY IN OUR TOWN

Ray Keen from THE CANBY CENTER discussed poverty and homelessness. When community comes together to help, everyone benefits.

Fred Douglas Jr. from YOUTH FOR CHRIST discussed youth. When we invest in our young people, we are investing in our future.

Joan Jones & Cindy Holt from LOVE INC discussed poverty and youth. It is the responsibility of the church to help those in need, especially youth transitioning out of foster care.

Derek Thompson from HANDS OF FAVOR discussed poverty and the homeless. Something as simple as a haircut gives people dignity.

Mike Giering from CITY TEAM discussed poverty and homelessness. Building community around the suffering brings hope and healing.

Rhona Mahl from BRAKING CYCLES discussed homeless youth. Everyone needs identity and a sense of belonging.

Milan Homola, Linda Tribbett & Ray Biggerstaff from COMPASSION CONNECT discussed poverty and crime. When we work together, we fulfill the commission of Jesus.

LETTERS

"For over 15 years we prayed that our youngest child would return home...She is home and we have a second chance at a close family."

"Thank you sincerely for such a wonderful ministry. I can't imagine going a day without the programming you make available each day."

"I am so thankful for TBN and how this forever family has helped mold my spiritual journey."

"Most days you get the center stage in my apartment. Many of your programs feed me."

"I want to thank you for your TBN ministry. It's been speaking so much love into my heart and I'm growing in Christ because of your program. I truly love you and I know you truly love me. Thank you so much even though I'm in prison I feel at home with our Father because of your tv ministry."

"Thank you for your support and becoming a breath, a light of Jesus to us incarcerated. Thank you for sharing your faith, hope and praying for us and loved ones."