

Urban Outreach Denver exists to connect people to God and to a community of support by caring for both short-term and long-term needs in the areas of food, clothing, shelter, etc. (Isaac Olivarez- Photo Right)

Praying Hands Ranch is committed to meeting the needs of handicapped children, adults, troubled youth and disabled veterans in a therapeutic ranch environment. (Michael Fortin – Photo Left)

Jordan Fischer, CEO & Co-Founder of Hope In Our City

LOVE

THY NEIGHBOR

Hope In Our City use sports, education, and experiences to engage the community. Through these, life-skills are taught and deeper relationships are developed that lead to future opportunities to invest and build into people's lives.

Beth Caffrey, Founder of Mission Wear

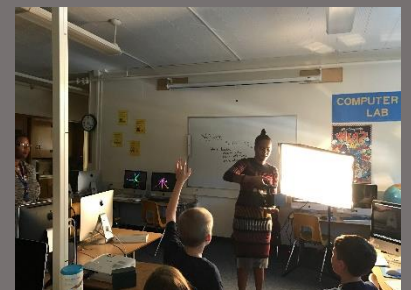

Mission Wear is a social enterprise that supports the employment of women who are in recovery from addiction, prostitution, incarceration, felony and homelessness.

KPJR was invited to a meet and greet at Denver Children's Home. We had the opportunity to share in lives of the wonderful children and staff.

KPJR-TV38

GREELEY-DENVER

KPJR had the opportunity to volunteer at Bradley Elementary School. We taught an after-school film program that targets aspiring filmmakers, grades third through fifth. The students had a blast!