Joy in Our Town Programs

Pastor Sam Walker (below), outreach pastor at Crossroads Church, visited with Joy in Our Town host, Pastor Bates with OKC Faith Church, about one outreach program that occurs each Tuesday evening in a certain area of the city that they take food and clothing to the homeless. An unique part of this ministry is that the people can give a request for needed items and the following week the item can be picked up. Also another outreach is to public schools, giving items such as paper supplies, snacks and drinks. The teachers and principals are so appreciative and it has helped the gospel come alive to them.

Cole Phillips, Communications Pastor, and Samantha Moser, the Gym Director with The Gate Church, visited with Joy in Our Town host Dolly Velasquez about the new gym for the community. They offer several free services such as women's dance exercise classes and kids' dance classes.

AlsoGate Church's CityReach ministry was also discussed. CityReach helps those in need through several outreaches, including providing coats to the homeless and a special Christmas outreach. CityReach was on hand in 2013, taking food and water to victims and responders, after a large tornado struck the city of Moore, a suburb of Oklahoma City.

A letter came from a prisoner in Oklahoma listing several programmers he enjoys watching and thanking TBN for the great programs and that he is learning a lot from them. PTL

COMMUNITY OUTREACH

Oklahoma Dream Center had a need for some food items to help feed the homeless and those who need a little extra. We had them on a Joy in Our Town program that airs next month.
