Joy In Our Town

❖ WELF's Joy In Our Town this month featured host Ciby Thomas Visiting with Reggie Smith from the local United Methodist inner city mission, the Bethlehem Center. Reggie spoke to Ciby about the challenges Inner city residents face living in the projects, and how the center seeks to support these folks and bring them to know and rely on Christ.

- ❖ Host Lisa Daughtery spoke with Paul Lee about the important ministry of the local chapter of Fellowship of Christian Peace officers in Chattanooga. Mr. Lee discussed the many spiritual challenges officers face while working in the line of duty and how the FCPO comes alongside these officers to support them.

Community Involvement

- ❖ TBN Manager Jan Myers was invited to speak at another small group meeting in January, hosted at WELF's offices. A devotional was given along with a tour of the station and a goody bag for each attendee. This group is comprised of senior ladies all recently widowed in the community.

- ❖ TBN partnered with the "Want to" Foundation this month by providing mentoring services to one of Hamilton County's public charter schools. The students requested someone from the broadcast industry to come and partner with them as they go through the rest of the school year, to teach skill sets and help them find opportunities for relevant experience in local media outlets.

- ❖ TBN attended Scenic City Women's Network's monthly luncheon to hear Peggy Michaels. Peggy's impact on those with whom her path has crossed has not been minimized by the crippling disease she fights daily, but quite the opposite! She literally has inspired everyone around her to be the best they can be in physical fitness and in character development.

'HERE AM I'

— I revealed myself to those who did not ask for me;
I was found by those who did not seek me.

To a nation that did not call on my name,
I said, 'Here am I, here am I.'

— Isaiah 65:1
