WSFJ TBN NEWS MARCH

Sending the Hope and Grace of Jesus to the World! Columbus, Ohio • March 2017

We had a heavy flow of traffic on our local page!

Our Second Chance Facebook page had a good month of new interaction as we picked up 50 new followers! Each day our post consists of scripture, inspirational quotes, and messages to bless and encourage our followers with the love of Jesus Christ.

WSFJ TV-51/TBN Columbus was so honored and proud to partner with Diona Clark and Liv Out Loud Enterprises. Their mission is to raise awareness of domestic violence by promoting healthy self-esteem.

We also helped Christ Cathedral to feed the homeless. We prepared meals and provided natural and Spiritual food too those in need.

Encounter Him is a Web Series to encourage our Facebook followers with the love of Jesus! This month we welcomed Minister Jessica Haggy, she shared a word of encouragement for the victims of mental illness and depression.

Greg Henneman, Director of the HEAL Program (Healthy Eating and Living) for the United Methodist Church & Community Development for All People, visited Joy in Our Town to talk about healthy eating and living,

Gabriel Harrison, Program Director of The Free Store for the United Methodist Church & Community Development for All People, appears on the program to discuss how the Free Store ministers to those in our community and what it is about.
