WSFJ TBN NEWS JANUARY

Sending the Hope and Grace of Jesus to the World!

Columbus, Ohio • January 2017

In the last month we saw a blessing in fresh "Likes" (115) from new friends on our Facebook media site!

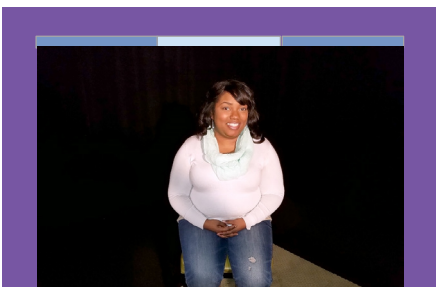

We had lots of traffic and interaction on our local page as we surpassed 2,446 "Likes!"

Our TBN 2nd Chance Facebook page had a good month of interaction. Each day our posts consist of scripture, inspirational quotes, and messages to bless and encourage our followers with the love of Jesus Christ.

WSFJ TV-51/TBN Columbus was honored and proud to partner with Christ Cathedral Church and provide $100 gift cards for families in need during Christmas and the Holiday Season. Christ Cathedral's mission is "Loving Jesus and Loving People."

Encounter Him is a web series to encourage our Facebook followers with the love of Jesus! This month we welcomed Psalmist Faith Nicole Johnson, who shared on overcoming the tragic pain associated with having a miscarriage.

Shatisha Williams with Freedom Reign Christian Center appeared on Joy in Our Town to discuss foster parenting, with her personal testimony of being a foster parent. Shatisha is a NYC 911 survivor who relocated to Columbus, Ohio

Roy Hall, Jr., Founder & CEO of The Driven Foundation, came onto the show to discuss building relationships with our youth to help them grow into adulthood. Roy Hall had a career in the NFL and as a television analyst. Roy is from Cleveland.
